Come be a friend

The public library is a most crucial community asset in this information age. Young children are introduced to the wonderful world of books, computer games and learning activities through library services. All members of the community are equal in their access to the world through computer services, books, reference materials, periodicals and special programs at the library.

The Friends of St. Thomas Public Libraries is an active group. In addition to supporting programs at the Enid M. Baa Public Library, we are happily anticipating the opening of the new library in Tutu and conducting several outreach programs to provide library services to as many segments of the community as possible.

We collect used books and magazines and redistribute them to the hospital, senior centers, community centers, youth groups and free bookshelves. Our children's programs include the Day Care Literacy Project.

You are welcome to attend our board meetings and join one of the committees or projects or even the Board. You can volunteer, as much or as little as you wish, in any of our projects. Read the list on the next page and decide where you would like to help.

We urge you to be a regular visitor to the library and invite you to join the Friends of St. Thomas Public Libraries.
